

PACIFIC AVIATION MUSEUM PEARL HARBOR

FORD ISLAND, HAWAII

FREE Admission for Hawaii Teachers At PACIFIC AVIATION MUSEUM located on historic Ford Island.

Visit the “newest” of the Pearl Harbor Historic Sites for FREE on

Monday January 5, 2009 and Tuesday January 6, 2009

Sponsored by:

Pankow

Two days for Teachers to experience WWII Aviation history where it was made in the WWII hangars on historic Ford Island, next to the Red and White Striped Control tower.

To visit the Pacific Aviation Museum for FREE:

1. Call 441-1000 for a reservation and directions by January 5, 2009.
2. Park at the Bowfin Museum next to the Arizona Memorial.
3. Present your official CURRENT SCHOOL ID at the Bowfin ticket counter. Take shuttle bus to the Museum on Ford Island.
4. Once at the museum, check in at the Reception Desk to pick up your FREE Museum HCPS III aligned Education program packet to use in your classroom.

Accompanying family and friends can join you at the Kama`aina rate $10.00 for Adult and $5.00 for children.

For more information Call 808-441-1008 or Email: education@pacificaviationmuseum
www.pacificaviationmuseum.org